I am a published knitwear and crochet designer, specializing in children's clothing. I love coming up with designs that are new and different, and I find inspiration in everything and everyone around me ... my family, children, imagination, yarn, textures, nature ...

In the past five years, I've created over 175 designs, and have sold hundreds of custom-made items online. Thanks to requests from many customers, I started working on patterns for my designs. I really feel that it was the right direction to take, and I am completely hooked! I am currently writing patterns for my older designs, and creating new ones as I go along.

I hope that you will enjoy working with my patterns as much as I have enjoyed designing and writing them for you. Please feel free to visit my website (http://mylittlecitygirl.com) to learn more about me and my designs, and locate stores where my patterns are sold.

Sincerely yours,
Alla Koval
