This lightweight crochet scarf with flower edging is a super spring accessory and can provide a bit of warmth for the days when it is a little chilly as well as providing some additional color and texture to outfits. Such a fun project, which takes just a couple hours and can be made in any plain or multicolored yarn. Not to mention that this sweet flower edging may be used for blankets, pillows, sweaters, halters... well, whatever you can think of! A perfect gift idea too!

I am published knitwear and crochet designer, specializing in children's clothing. In the past four years, I've created over 140 designs and have sold hundreds of custom made items online. Thanks to the requests of many customers, I started working on patterns for my designs last year. I'm really feeling that this is the direction to take, and I am completely hooked! Listed above are the patterns that are available so far, and I hope to write many more for my older designs, as well as for new designs. I hope that you will enjoy my patterns as much as I have enjoyed designing and writing them for you.

Please feel free to visit my website (http://mylittlecitygirl.com) to learn more about me and to locate stores where my patterns are sold.

Sincerely yours,
Alla Koval
